

Unique Venues Birmingham

Birmingham's Unique Network Launches First Business Networking Event

Birmingham's Unique Network (BUN) hosted its first business networking event in Birmingham on 21st July 2021. Held at Pushkar on Broad Street, the event was a huge success with 63 attendees from Birmingham's buzzing business sector.

BUN is created by Sheila Kelly-Trow in association with Unique Venues Birmingham and aims to host events for networking and relationship building for businesses in Birmingham. Attendees are from a range of business sectors and the aim of the events is to create meaningful business connections and relationships in the city.

"Thank you for putting on such a great event, it was great to be out networking again and of course it was very well organised with agreeable company and delicious food. I look forward to attending the next one." Simon Greenfield, Colour Cubed.

"What a lovely time we had catching up with the magnificent Rai from Pushkar, the food as always was scrumptious. Thank you also to Sheila Kelly-Trow and Suzanna & Sarah from Unique Venues Birmingham for arranging a fabulous lunch. Here is to optimism and friendship." Andrew Kay, Arcade Property Ltd.

"Excellent networking event with excellent food so lovely to be able to meet with everyone again after 18 months. Fabulous turnout and looking forward to the next one in August. Best networking group in Birmingham!" Jacqueline Bullock, Pertemps.

The second event is to be held on 18th August at St Paul's House in the Jewellery Quarter. Tickets are £25 per person and include an arrival drink and a two-course lunch. To find out more about BUN, contact connect@birminghamsuniquenetwork.com